

We're writing to you to let you know about our live interactive performance with workshop elements of The Legends of Grimous Ironblood, based on local author K. R. Boyter's epic fantasy verse book.

What is a live interactive performance with workshop elements?

Adapted for the stage by the author himself, Ken Boyter, and actor Vickie Holden, who has over twenty years of drama and educational workshop experience, The Legends of Grimous Ironblood is an exciting two actor show aimed at Years 5 and 6. It consists of three interconnected fantasy-inspired stories, which explore the themes of human kindness, vanity, greed, jealousy, and the nature of true love. At certain points during these performances, pupils can volunteer to participate in the show.

As part of the unique learning experience, two short engaging and educational workshops are conducted between the three stories. These explore and encourage the importance of our storytelling and spoken word heritage, vocabulary, reading, creativity, communication and drama skills.

But that's not all...

In addition to the live interactive performance with workshop elements, Ken and Vickie will be happy to hold a separate Question and Answer session on the subjects of creative writing, drama and storytelling.
